

Muslim Social Services KW 2018 Strategic Plan

Define and promote our organizational identity

MSS offers innovative programming, public education, settlement and integration services, social assistance and well-being services, counseling, and youth outreach. We provide a lot of support in Waterloo Region. Due to our flexible nature and willingness to help our clients no matter their social challenge, we often fly under the radar and don't get the recognition we need to flourish as a larger organization. Other agencies and individuals in the community are intimidated or confused by our religiosity, which can negatively affect granting, partnerships, and clients. By clarifying our identity and offerings for ourselves and for the public, we will establish MSS as a recognized social service pillar in the

- Research and evaluation

Build organizational excellence through accountability; planning; board, staff, and volunteer capacity building; and vibrant partnerships

MSS has proven our ability to do a lot of good work with few human resources. We will grow the capacity of our people, including our board members, staff, and volunteers to deepen and expand our impact. We will do this by developing robust operational practices, engaging our people in meaningful and useful ways, formalizing our external partnerships, and developing our volunteer program.

- Strengthen board governance and engagement
- Strengthen organizational capacity

- Capacity building and succession planning
- Formalizing partnerships
- Ensure operational excellence

- Volunteer organization program development
- Create mutually benefitting alliances
